Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases

Understanding Australian etiquette and everyday expressions will enrich your trip and interactions:

Cultural Etiquette

- Punctuality: Highly valued. Arrive on time for tours, meals, and meetups.
 - Tipping: Not mandatory but appreciated (around 10% at restaurants for excellent service).
 - Queueing: Always respected—whether at a bus stop or checkout counter.
 - Politeness: Aussies are friendly; saying “please,” “thank you,” and “excuse me” is expected.
 - Dress Code: Casual wear is common; smart casual is fine for most restaurants. Formal only for upscale venues or events.
 - Public Spaces: Keep noise levels low in public transport and shared spaces. Littering is frowned upon.

Mobile Connectivity & SIM Card Guide

Staying connected is easy in Australia, whether for maps, bookings, or staying in touch with home.

Recommended Providers

1. Telstra – Best coverage across cities and remote areas
 2. Optus – Good value and widespread urban coverage
 3. Vodafone – Cheapest, but with more limited regional signal

Where to Buy

- Airport kiosks: Available at Sydney, Melbourne, and Cairns airports
 - Retail stores: Telstra, Optus, or Vodafone shops in most city centres
 - Also found at major convenience stores and supermarkets

Cost & Plans

- Prepaid SIMs start from AUD 20–30 (includes ~10–15 GB data)
 - Options for unlimited calls/texts within Australia
 - Most include some free international calling/data for India

Tips

- Bring your passport when purchasing a SIM (mandatory for registration)
- Opt for Telstra if planning rural drives (e.g., Great Ocean Road, Hunter Valley)

Health & Vaccination Recommendations

Traveling to Australia doesn't require any special vaccinations beyond standard ones, but it's wise to stay updated for general health and peace of mind.

Recommended Vaccinations (Standard for All Travelers)

- COVID-19 – Fully vaccinated and boosted if possible
 - Tetanus, Diphtheria & Pertussis (Tdap) – Booster if not had in last 10 years
 - Hepatitis A – Recommended due to potential exposure via food or water
 - Hepatitis B – For longer stays or potential healthcare needs
 - Influenza (Flu shot) – Especially recommended for travel during the Southern Hemisphere's flu season (May–September)

Health & Hygiene Tips

- Tap water is safe to drink throughout Australia
 - Sunscreen is essential – UV rays are strong, even in winter
 - Hand sanitizer & face masks – Still recommended for crowded public areas
 - Carry basic medication – Include motion sickness pills, antacids, allergy tablets, and insect repellent (especially for Cairns)

Documents to Carry

- Vaccination certificate (especially for COVID-19)
- Doctor's prescription for any medications
- Travel insurance that includes medical coverage (e.g., Tata AIG)
