Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases

Do's in Bali:

- Greet locals with a smile and a light bow (no handshake unless offered)
- Remove shoes when entering temples and private homes
- Dress modestly when visiting religious sites – cover shoulders and knees
- Use both hands when giving or receiving something (a sign of respect)
- Avoid touching anyone's head – it is considered sacred

Don'ts:

- Don't point your feet at people or sacred objects
- Avoid public displays of affection, especially near temples
- Never climb on temple structures or altars for photos

Useful Bahasa Indonesia Phrases:

- Hello – Swastiastu
- Thank you – Suksma
- Yes – Nyak | No – Sing
- How much? – Ajikuda Niki?

⚠️ Local Tips & Scams to Avoid

🚗 Transport & Ride-Hailing

- Use Grab or Gojek apps for fair pricing. Taxis near tourist areas often overcharge or refuse to use meters.
- Avoid unmarked taxis and drivers offering “cheap day tours” on the spot—always book through trusted providers or your hotel.

🏠 Currency Exchange

- Only use authorized money changers with glass-walled counters and official signage (e.g., PT. Central Kuta).
- Avoid roadside currency stalls offering high rates—they often shortchange or use sleight of hand.

📱 Mobile Data & SIM Cards

- Buy SIMs inside the airport or from official telecom shops. Avoid kiosks with handwritten price lists or “tourist SIMs” with inflated prices.

🛍️ Markets & Shops

- Bargain, but politely. If a price seems unreasonably high, it probably is—walk away to find a better deal nearby.
- Avoid paying before receiving the item or service (especially for clothing tailoring or craft pickups).

🐱 Spas & Wellness

- Stick to spas recommended by hotels or trusted guides. Some budget massage parlors in high-tourist areas can be shady or upsell aggressively.

🐒 Temple Monkeys

- At spots like Uluwatu, monkeys are notorious for grabbing sunglasses, phones, and hats. Avoid carrying visible food or loose accessories.
