Local Tips & Scams to Avoid

Transport & Ride-Hailing

- Use Grab or Gojek apps for fair pricing. Taxis near tourist areas often overcharge or refuse to use meters.
- Avoid unmarked taxis and drivers offering “cheap day tours” on the spot—always book through trusted providers or your hotel.

Currency Exchange

- Only use authorized money changers with glass-walled counters and official signage (e.g., PT. Central Kuta).
- Avoid roadside currency stalls offering high rates—they often shortchange or use sleight of hand.

Mobile Data & SIM Cards

- Buy SIMs inside the airport or from official telecom shops. Avoid kiosks with handwritten price lists or “tourist SIMs” with inflated prices.

Markets & Shops

- Bargain, but politely. If a price seems unreasonably high, it probably is—walk away to find a better deal nearby.
- Avoid paying before receiving the item or service (especially for clothing tailoring or craft pickups).

Spas & Wellness

- Stick to spas recommended by hotels or trusted guides. Some budget massage parlors in high-tourist areas can be shady or upsell aggressively.

Temple Monkeys

- At spots like Uluwatu, monkeys are notorious for grabbing sunglasses, phones, and hats. Avoid carrying visible food or loose accessories.

Credit Card Usage

- Credit cards are widely accepted in mid- to upscale venues, but watch for card skimming. Use cash or contactless payments when in doubt.
