Day 1: Jun 14 – Arrival in Bali & Ubud Retreat

Morning & Early Afternoon – Arrival and Hotel Transfer

- 📍 Ngurah Rai International Airport (DPS)
- 🕒 Arrival at 11:55
- 🚗 Travel Time to hotel: 20 min car drive
- 🏠 Check-in at Conrad Nusa Dua

A luxurious beachfront resort in Bali, Conrad Nusa Dua is known for its extensive tropical gardens, multiple pools, a serene spa (Jiwa Spa), and a wide range of facilities for both relaxation and recreation.

Late Afternoon – Uluwatu Temple Visit

- 📍 Uluwatu Temple
- 🕒 Hours: 7:00 AM – 7:00 PM
- 💰 IDR 50,000 (approximately $3.25 USD) for adults and IDR 30,000 (approximately $2.00 USD) for children.
- 🚗 Travel Time: 37 min from the hotel

Built on a dramatic cliffside 70 meters above the sea, this sacred temple offers panoramic ocean views. Watch waves crash below and explore the forested paths (watch out for cheeky monkeys!).

6:00 PM – Kecak Fire Dance

Held at the Uluwatu amphitheater, the Kecak performance features a hypnotic chorus of chanting men, fire effects, and the legendary tale of Ramayana—all set against a fiery sunset backdrop.

- 💰 IDR 150,000 to IDR 150,000 per person

- Pie Susu – Bali's iconic milk pie (best bought from Pie Susu Asli Enaak, Jimbaran)
- Batik & Ikat Textiles – Vibrant, handwoven fabrics for clothing or décor
- Balinese Coffee – Especially Kopi Luwak, available in markets and coffee farms
- Rattan Bags – Trendy, handcrafted accessories found in Ubud and Seminyak
- Wooden Handicrafts & Ceramics – Ideal from the Ubud Art Market
- Essential Oils & Spa Products – Coconut, lemongrass, and frangipani-based items

Where to Shop:

-  Ubud Art Market – Handmade goods and artisan souvenirs
-  Krisna Oleh-Oleh Bali – For snacks, T-shirts, and souvenirs in bulk
-  Seminyak Village – Upscale boutique finds
-  Bali Collection (Nusa Dua)- for jewellery and souvenirs
-  Kuta Art Market

 Tip: Bargain with a smile. A polite haggle can reduce prices by 30–40% in open markets.

Local Tips & Scams to Avoid

Transport & Ride-Hailing

- Use Grab or Gojek apps for fair pricing. Taxis near tourist areas often overcharge or refuse to use meters.
- Avoid unmarked taxis and drivers offering “cheap day tours” on the spot—always book through trusted providers or your hotel.

Currency Exchange

- Only use authorized money changers with glass-walled counters and official signage (e.g., PT. Central Kuta).
- Avoid roadside currency stalls offering high rates—they often shortchange or use sleight of hand.

Mobile Data & SIM Cards

- Buy SIMs inside the airport or from official telecom shops. Avoid kiosks with handwritten price lists or “tourist SIMs” with inflated prices.

Markets & Shops

- Bargain, but politely. If a price seems unreasonably high, it probably is—walk away to find a better deal nearby.
- Avoid paying before receiving the item or service (especially for clothing tailoring or craft pickups).

Spas & Wellness

- Stick to spas recommended by hotels or trusted guides. Some budget massage parlors in high-tourist areas can be shady or upsell aggressively.

Temple Monkeys

- At spots like Uluwatu, monkeys are notorious for grabbing sunglasses, phones, and hats. Avoid carrying visible food or loose accessories.

Credit Card Usage

- Credit cards are widely accepted in mid- to upscale venues, but watch for card skimming. Use cash or contactless payments when in doubt.
