Day 8: November 25 — The Heritage Heart of Macau | Senado Square, St. Dominic's Church & Ruins of St. Paul's

Morning — Walking Through History

Begin your day exploring the UNESCO-listed Historic Centre of Macau, where pastel-colored façades, cobblestone plazas, and colonial churches echo the city's centuries of Portuguese influence.

Senado Square \(议事亭前地\)

-  Description: The beating heart of old Macau, this European-style square is lined with wave-patterned mosaic tiles, neoclassical buildings, and charming arcades. The square is especially lively in the mornings, filled with cafés and boutique shops.
 -  Open 24 hours
 -  Free entry
 -  17 mins from The Venetian Macao |  Limited nearby

St. Dominic's Church \(玫瑰圣母堂\)

-  Description: Founded in 1587 by Spanish Dominican friars, this Baroque church with its buttery-yellow façade and green shutters is one of the oldest in Asia. Step inside for a peaceful contrast to the bustle outside — sunlight filters through stained glass, casting colorful reflections on the marble floors.
-  10 AM – 6 PM
-  Free entry
-  15 mins car drive from Senado Square

Ruins of St. Paul's (大三巴牌坊)

-  Description: The most iconic landmark of Macau — only the stone façade remains of the 17th-century Church of St. Paul, but it stands proudly above a wide staircase as a symbol of Macau's enduring blend of East and West.
 -  9 AM – 6 PM
 -  Free entry
 -  9 mins from St. Dominic's Church

Monte Fort (大炮台)

-  Description: Adjacent to the Ruins of St. Paul's, this 17th-century fortress once protected the city from pirates. Today, its stone ramparts offer panoramic views of Macau's skyline — a perfect vantage point for photos.
 -  7 AM – 7 PM
 -  Free entry
 -  9 mins from Ruins of St. Paul's

Lunch Recommendations (Around Senado Square & St. Paul's Area)
