Getting Around in Dubai

Public Transport

- Please bear in mind that it is not possible to pay in cash for any means of public transport in Dubai.
- The NOL card (Nol Card) is a rechargeable card that allows all public transport in the city to be used in an easy way
- It can be purchased at any metro station.
- There are different types of Nol cards. The Silver card is recommended for tourists. It costs 25 AED which includes a 19 AED credit.
- Download the RTA Dubai app, for information on schedules and prices and also to recharge the Nol card.
- The Nol card can also be recharged at any of the designated recharge machines available at metro and bus stations.

Other pointers to consider:

- Each passenger needs 1 Nol card
- The minimum card balance is 7.5 AED
- The maximum balance value is 1,000 AED for Anonymous nol cards and 5,000 AED for Personal and registered cards
- In order to activate the pending top up, please use your card in any online parking meter, metro gates, nol pay application or Solar Top-up Machines after 45 minutes to 4 hours to update your card balance.
- It is important to remember to swipe the card at the end of your journey, otherwise, you will be charged the maximum fare instead of paying the correct fare.
- The lowest fare is for short journeys of up to 1.8 miles, which allows you 1 transfer of up to 90 minutes. For this option, the price is 3 AED (US$ 0.80) for silver cards
- You can also use your nol card to pay at certain stores- please refer to this link- <https://www.rta.ae/wps/portal/rta/ae/public-transport/nol/nol-merchants>

Personal Safety & Emergency Contacts

General Safety Tips:

- Dubai is generally very safe, but stay aware of your surroundings, especially in crowded areas.
- Keep valuables (passport, money, gadgets) in a secure bag or hotel safe.
- Avoid walking alone in poorly lit or isolated areas at night.
- Use licensed taxis or ride-hailing apps (Careem, Uber).
- Always wear a seatbelt while in vehicles.
- Follow local traffic rules and pedestrian crossings; jaywalking is fined.
- Drink bottled water to avoid dehydration; tap water is generally safe but may taste different.
- Use sunscreen, sunglasses, and hats to protect against sun exposure.

Scams and Frauds in Dubai:

- Overcharging in taxis – Some drivers may take longer routes; always use the meter or app-based rides (Careem/Uber).
- Street hawkers / sellers – Beware of overpriced goods or counterfeit items in markets and malls.
- “Friendly locals” scams – Strangers offering unsolicited help, gifts, or tours may demand payment later.
- Pickpocketing – Rare, but keep bags zipped and valuables secure in crowded areas.
- Fake charities / donation requests – Only donate through recognized organizations.

Buying a SIM Card

Where to Buy:

- Dubai International Airport (Terminals 1, 2, 3) – convenient for immediate use.
- Official stores of Etisalat, du, or Virgin Mobile across the city.
- Major malls (Dubai Mall, Mall of the Emirates, Ibn Battuta Mall).

Requirements:

- Valid passport (mandatory for registration).
- Some stores may ask for a visa copy if not a UAE resident.

Types of SIM Cards:

- Prepaid / Tourist SIMs – ideal for short stays, include data, local calls, and some international minutes.
- Postpaid SIMs – for longer stays, usually requires Emirates ID or residence proof.

Activation:

- SIM is usually activated instantly.
- Staff can assist with setting up mobile data.
