Famous Dishes in Scotland

- Seafood- you will find lobster and crab to local langoustines, hand-dived scallops and hot and cold smoked salmon on the menu.
- Cullen Skink- traditional Scottish soup made of smoked haddock, potatoes and onions.
- Raspberry Cranachan is a very quick and easy dessert to make, and it is traditionally made with raspberries
- Vegetarian Haggis made out of Oats, Lentils, Rapeseed Oil, Kidney Beans, Onions, Carrot, Swede, Mushrooms, Sunflower Seeds, Pumpkin Seeds, Salt, Spices, Pepper.
- Clapshot- Another traditional accompaniment for the famous Scottish haggis, the Orcadian clapshot or clapshaw is basically a more elaborate version of neeps and tatties: a dish of mashed potatoes and yellow turnip, typically mixed with milk, some butter or dripping, and chives, while some recipes even include onions.
- Scottish tablets/fudge- This medium-hard sweet can be eaten on its own, mixed in with ice cream, or as with other flavours, such as rum and raisin, chocolate orange, nuts

Mobile Connectivity while in UK

- There are many SIM Card providers in the UK.
- I would recommend Three
- The best place to buy a sim card is at the airport kiosks
- Even if you do not purchase an international roaming plan for your current India number, remember to activate roaming so that you receive messages (important for things like OTPs).
