Day 7: November 10

-  Embark on a day trip to Brighton and the Seven Sisters
 - Meet at the pickup location at 8:10 am
 - The day begins by departing London and taking a relaxing drive to England's south coast. After travelling through south London we'll emerge into countryside before arriving at the first stop of the day; Brighton.
 - Today Brighton is one of Britain's most vibrant seaside towns, yet only 400-years ago was a very small fishing village. The city saw much development in the 18th century and today is an exciting city of culture, with much to see and do.
 - Be sure to see the Royal Pavillion, an exotic palace which was Prince George's (later King George VI) residence in Brighton. Take a wander through the labyrinth of 'The Lanes', today full of restaurants and shops these narrow streets are set on Brighton's original fishing village. And don't miss a bracing walk along the iconic Palace Pier
 - After time to explore Brighton and have lunch we'll set-off and travel through South Downs National Park. We'll follow the coast towards the famous Seven Sisters cliffs. Here we'll have plenty of time to admire this stunning sequence of seven undulating chalk cliffs. Take a walk along the cliffs, down along the beach and enjoy time for photo opportunities.
 - By late afternoon it will be time to set-off away from the coast and back inland, towards London.

Lunch Options (At Brighton)

Pearly Cow — Stylish seaside dining, modern décor, great for a relaxed mid-range dinner with some extra view.

Must-try: Local Sussex fish or meat special—ask waiter for the day's catch.

 12:30- 3:15 pm |  GBP 30-45 pp |

Riddle & Finns – Brighton Seafront— Stylish but relaxed seaside setting right on the seafront; modern décor, great for seafood lovers and groups.

Must-try: Whole grilled lobster with herb butter; seafood platter of oysters, mussels, crab.

 12-10 pm |  GBP 35-60 pp |

Flat Iron Steakhouse – Brighton- Modern steakhouse in Brighton centre, casual yet stylish

Must-try: Flat-iron steak with sides; surf & turf if available.

 12-10 pm |  GBP 25-40 pp |

Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases

Understanding local customs and language nuances can elevate your travel experience and ensure respectful interactions across both England and Scotland.

General Etiquette Tips

- Queuing is sacred – Always wait your turn and avoid jumping lines, especially in transport and cafés.
 - Politeness matters – A simple “please,” “thank you,” and “sorry” go a long way.
 - Tipping – Not mandatory, but appreciated. Round up or leave 10–12.5% at restaurants if not included.
 - Pub culture – Order and pay at the bar unless table service is clearly indicated. Take turns buying “rounds” if in a group.
 - Personal space – Brits appreciate physical space; avoid standing too close in queues or transport.

Temple & Heritage Site Respect

- At churches/cathedrals – Dress modestly, speak quietly, and check if photography is permitted.
 - Historic estates or private homes – Stick to public paths and follow signage or tour guide instructions.

Useful Local Phrases

Common British English Terms

- “Cheers” – Thank you / a toast
- “Loo” – Bathroom
