Getting Around in Paris

Purchase the Paris Visite card for a period of 3 days for zones 1-3.

It will cover entry into Paris+your sightseeing.

It does not make sense to purchase for the day you travel to Switzerland. For this, pay for individual tickets.

You can purchase Paris Visite travel passes at the ticket desks and automatic vending machines in all RATP stations, Or online with Parisjetaime.com

Famous Dishes in France

- Croissants and other viennoisseries
- Crepes- Ultrathin pancakes can be filled with sweet or savory ingredients.
- French Onion soup- brothy soup is topped with bread and melted cheese. Please confirm that the broth is veg/chicken as it is most usually made with beef broth.
- Ratatouille- Featuring a colorful collection of eggplant, zucchini, peppers, onion and tomatoes, ratatouille can be prepared by either baking all the vegetables like a casserole or sautéing them with olive oil, garlic, salt and pepper.
- Quiche- savoury tart. Pumpkin and goat cheese and mushroom quiches are popular choices.
- Tomato Tart- This savory tomato tart is made with a flaky pastry crust, covered with a thin layer of Dijon mustard, and topped with ripe tomatoes and a blend of herbs such as thyme and oregano.
- Celery Root Remoulade- salad made with thinly sliced celery root, tossed in a creamy remoulade sauce made from mayonnaise, mustard, and herbs.
- Cheese souffle- This light and airy dish is usually made with a cheese-flavored béchamel sauce, whipped egg whites, and grated cheese, such as Gruyère or Comté.
- Gratin Dauphinois- The main ingredients are thinly sliced potatoes, milk, cream or crème fraîche, garlic, and nutmeg, baked to golden perfection in a casserole dish in the oven.
- Salad Nicoise- a seasonal selection of fresh tomatoes, black olives, capers and green beans, all served cold, with the optional addition of anchovies or tuna
- Escargot- Snails with parsley and garlic butter are a French delicacy
- Confit de canard- The slow-cooked duck

- Sole meuniere- the sole fish is breaded with flour and sautéed in butter until delicately crisp and golden, then topped with parsley and sizzling brown butter, or beurre noisette, which has a rich, nutty flavor.
- Coq au vin- chicken cooked in red wine.
- Tarte Tatin- upside-down caramelized apple tart has deep, buttery flavor
- Souffle- rich yet lightweight dessert
- Crème Brûlée- creamy custard underneath crunchy caramelized sugar
- Profiteroles- Filled with vanilla custard, cream or even ice cream, these little cream puffs can be topped with chocolate sauce, fruit or just served plain.
- French cheese- Camembert, Roquefort and Brie are the most popular.
- Bouillabaisse- seafood soup made with at least 4 different varieties of seafood.
- Macarons- made with almond flour, egg white and sugar with buttercream or ganache, sandwiched in between.
