Day 1 - March 14 | Arrival in Paris & The Iron Lady

Bienvenue à Paris ✨

Your European journey begins in the City of Light- where elegant boulevards, historic façades, and the shimmering Seine set the tone for the days ahead.

Hotel:

ibis Styles Paris Bercy

Arrival & Transfer to Hotel

Arrive at Charles de Gaulle Airport around 12:00 PM.

Option 1: Taxi (Recommended After Long Flight)

Airport to Hotel

Travel Time: 1 hr 10 mins (depending on traffic)

Approx. INR 4,500–6,000 per car

This is the most comfortable and effortless option after a long international flight.

Option 2: Public Transport

Charles de Gaulle Airport → Hotel

- Take RER B from CDG Airport
- Change at Châtelet–Les Halles
- Take Metro Line 14 toward Olympiades
- Get off at Bercy

Travel Time: 48 mins

Approx. INR 1,000–1,200 per person

Efficient and reliable, though slightly longer and involves one transfer.

After check-in (or luggage drop), take time to freshen up before heading out for your first iconic Paris moment.

Afternoon - Eiffel Tower (Booked 3:15 PM)

Eiffel Tower

-  From hotel by taxi: ~25–30 mins
-  By metro: ~30 mins (Line 6 → Bir-Hakeim)
-  Opening Hours: 9:00 AM – 11:45 PM
-  Entry: Already booked (3:15 PM slot)

There is nothing quite like your first glimpse of the Eiffel Tower rising above the skyline. The intricate iron lattice feels delicate yet monumental up close. Arrive 20–30 minutes early for security checks and photographs.

After your visit, take a slow walk through Champ de Mars — wide green lawns with postcard-perfect angles of the tower. Let the excitement of arrival settle in.

Evening - Seine River Illumination Cruise

Port de la Bourdonnais

-  6 mins walk from Eiffel Tower
-  Cruises operate from early evening onward
-  Approx. INR 1,500–2,500 per person (if not pre-booked)- this is pending booking, currently.

As dusk deepens, board your Seine cruise and watch Paris transform. Bridges glow gold, monuments shimmer, and reflections dance on the water. You'll glide past the Louvre, Notre Dame, Musée d'Orsay and centuries of history- all beautifully illuminated.

It's effortless, romantic, and the perfect first-night experience.

Free to explore

Public parking garages available

Often called the “Venice of the Alps,” Annecy’s Old Town feels like a storybook. Pastel-colored houses lean over turquoise canals. Flower boxes spill from balconies. Stone bridges cross quiet waterways reflecting alpine peaks.

Wander slowly through cobbled streets, explore artisan boutiques, and pause at canal-side cafés. The pace here is gentle - this is where your trip shifts from sightseeing to soaking in atmosphere.

Optional - Lake Annecy Boat Experience (Seasonal)

Lake Annecy

7 mins walk from Old Town

Typically 10 AM – 5 PM (season dependent)

Approx. INR 1,800–3,000 per person

Lakeside paid parking available

If operating, a lake cruise is one of the most peaceful experiences here. The water is famously clear - framed by alpine peaks and elegant lakeside villas.

Day 5 - March 18 | Glaciers, Snow & Alpine Heritage

Today is about stepping into the high mountain world - historic trains, ancient glaciers, and playful snow moments framed by dramatic alpine scenery.

Overnight:

 Auberge du Manoir

Morning - Montenvers Cogwheel Train to Mer de Glace

Montenvers Railway

-  5 mins drive from hotel / 12 mins walk from town centre
-  Typically 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM (season dependent)
-  Approx. INR 3,500–4,500 per adult
-  Public parking available near station

Board the historic red cogwheel train that has been operating since 1908. The slow ascent winds through forests and rocky slopes, gradually revealing sweeping views of the Chamonix valley below.

After about 20 minutes, you arrive at:

Mer de Glace

France's largest glacier - stretching nearly 7 km through the valley.

From the viewing platforms, you can see the vast "Sea of Ice" carving its way between jagged peaks. Depending on conditions and operating status:

- Visit the Ice Cave (cut into the glacier each year)
- Explore the Glaciorium museum to understand alpine glacial history

 Note: Access to the ice cave involves steps and may be closed depending on snow and weather conditions.

The air here is crisp and noticeably cooler — gloves and proper footwear are strongly recommended.

Les Planards is beginner-friendly and ideal for relaxed snow experiences.

Depending on snow conditions, you can enjoy:

- Gentle sledging slopes
- Snow play areas
- Short scenic walks
- Alpine coaster (if operating)

This is not intense skiing - it's light, family-friendly snow time, perfect for enjoying the mountains without technical activity.

Clothing & Comfort Tips

- Waterproof shoes with grip
- Warm socks
- Gloves & beanie
- Sunglasses (snow glare can be strong)
- Sunscreen (UV reflects off snow)

Even on sunny days, temperatures can feel significantly colder due to wind at elevation.

Late Afternoon - Relaxed Chamonix Stroll

Return to Chamonix town centre for a relaxed coffee stop or chocolate break.

Alpine bakeries, wooden chalets, and mountain backdrops create an incredibly cosy setting. This is the perfect slow evening after a high-altitude morning.

Day 8 - March 21 | Strasbourg: Storybook Alsace

Today you cross back into France - into the enchanting Alsace region, where French elegance meets German charm. Strasbourg feels straight out of a fairytale: half-timbered houses, flower-lined canals, and Gothic spires rising above cobbled streets.

Overnight:

 Holiday Inn Express Strasbourg Centre

Morning - Drive to Strasbourg

Baden-Baden → Strasbourg

 ~60 km

 ~1 hr

A short and scenic drive brings you into Alsace. Border crossing is seamless within Schengen.

 Strasbourg Old Town has several well-marked underground parking garages (recommended rather than street parking).

Late Morning - Grande Île Boat Cruise

 Batorama Strasbourg

 10 mins from central parking

 Typically 10 AM – 5 PM

 Approx. INR 1,500–2,500 per person

 Paid parking nearby

The boat cruise is one of the best introductions to Strasbourg. Glide through canals around Grande Île, a UNESCO-listed historic centre.

You'll pass medieval towers, covered bridges, and elegant European institutions - all while learning about Strasbourg's unique Franco-German identity.

The pace is gentle and relaxing.

Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases- Germany

Dos

- Be punctual – Germans value time; even 5 minutes late is noticed.
 - Greet properly – Say “Guten Tag” (Good day) when entering shops or meeting people.
 - Use formal address first – Start with “Sie” (formal “you”) unless invited to use “du.”
 - Follow rules strictly – Especially traffic lights and public transport validation.
 - Keep noise levels low – Particularly in residential areas and public transport.
 - Carry cash (Bargeld) – Many small places still prefer cash.
 - Recycle correctly – Germany takes waste separation seriously.

Don'ts

- Don't jaywalk 🚫 – Crossing on red is frowned upon (and sometimes fined).
- Don't be overly loud in public – Seen as impolite.
- Don't assume everyone speaks English – Many do, but always ask politely first.
- Don't make Nazi-related jokes or gestures – This is extremely offensive and illegal.
- Don't expect small talk with strangers – Germans are polite but reserved initially.
- Don't forget to validate tickets (stamp machines in many cities).

Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases- France

Dos

- Always greet first – Say “Bonjour” when entering shops, restaurants, or asking for help.
 - Use polite words often – S’il vous plaît (please) and merci (thank you) matter a lot.
 - Start formally – Use “vous” instead of tu unless invited otherwise.
 - Dress neatly – The French appreciate smart, well-put-together appearance.
 - Keep your voice moderate – Loud talking in public is frowned upon.
 - Say goodbye when leaving – A simple “Au revoir” is expected.
 - Try basic French first – Even a small attempt is appreciated.

Don'ts

- Don't skip greetings 🚫 – Asking directly without bonjour is considered rude.
 - Don't speak loudly in public transport or cafés – Keep conversations soft.
 - Don't assume everyone speaks English – Always ask politely first.
 - Don't rush restaurant service – Dining is meant to be relaxed and slow.
 - Don't touch produce at markets without permission – Ask the vendor.
 - Don't overtip – Service is included; extra tipping is small and optional.

Personal Safety & Emergency Contacts

General Safety Tips:

- Carry a copy of your passport; keep the original in a hotel safe.
- Avoid displaying expensive jewelry or electronics in public
- Be cautious with street food — eat at clean, busy stalls.
- Be aware of your surroundings in crowded places and tourist spots.
- Keep cash and cards in separate pouches; avoid carrying large amounts.
- Follow local laws and customs — respect religious sites and dress codes.
- Use bottled or filtered water; avoid tap water.
- Take precautions against mosquitoes — wear repellent
- Keep emergency contacts handy (local police, embassy, hotel).
- Avoid swimming in unmonitored beaches during rough seas or rainy seasons.

Scams and Frauds:

- Petition Scam
 - Someone asks you to sign a “charity” or “deaf support” petition.
 - While you’re distracted, they may pickpocket or pressure for money.
 - Tip: Politely refuse and walk away.
- Pickpocketing in Crowded Areas

- Happens in train stations, markets, and busy tourist spots.
- Often done by teams working together.
- ☒ Tip: Keep bags zipped and valuables in front.

● Fake Ticket Inspectors

- Someone in plain clothes demands to check your ticket and asks for cash "fine."
- Real inspectors show official ID and usually don't take cash on the spot.
- ☒ Tip: Always ask for official identification.

● "Found Ring" Scam

- A stranger pretends to find a gold ring near you and offers to sell it cheaply.
- The ring is fake.
- ☒ Tip: Ignore and keep walking.

● ATM Skimming

- Devices placed on ATMs to copy card details.
- More likely at isolated machines.
- ☒ Tip: Use ATMs inside banks and cover keypad.

● Train Station Help Scam

- Someone offers to help with ticket machines, then asks for money.
- Sometimes they select expensive tickets deliberately.

- ☒ Tip: Use official staff only (look for DB uniform).
- Restaurant Overcharging
 - Rare but possible in very touristy areas.
 - Extra items added to the bill.
 - ☒ Tip: Check bill carefully before paying.
- Taxi Overcharging
 - Taking longer routes or not using meter.
 - Less common but possible.
 - ☒ Tip: Use licensed taxis or ride apps.
- Free Bracelet or Gift Trick
 - Someone tries to put a bracelet on your wrist and then demands payment.
 - Not very common but reported in tourist zones.
 - ☒ Tip: Keep hands close and firmly refuse.
- Fake Rental Listings
 - Online apartment offers that ask for advance payment.
 - Property either doesn't exist or isn't available.
 - ☒ Tip: Never transfer money before verified viewing.
