

Detailed Final Itinerary – Japan

Marina Fernandes

Contents

Final Itinerary.....	2
----------------------	---

Final Itinerary- Details

Day	Osaka- Kyoto- Tokyo
Saturday May 11th	- Travel from Pune to Mumbai (book a transfer for this) - Catch flight at 13:15
Day 1, Sunday, May 12th	- Arrive at KIX at 545 am Book Transfer - Transfer to hotel Sunlife, have breakfast and rest - Visit the Osaka Castle (30 mins from hotel by metro) it is open everyday from 9am-5pm People typically spend 2-3 hrs exploring the castle and the grounds. It is better to buy tickets for Osaka Castle online, to avoid queues. - Have lunch at one of the places around the hotel (check eating out guide) and relax at the hotel - In the evening, walk around the Nipponbashi area (20 mins by metro from the hotel- explore the anime centre of Osaka. Then walk towards and visit Dotonbori for shopping and for dinner (check eating out guide). People typically spend 5-6 hrs exploring both Nipponbashi and Dotonbori Return back to the hotel for the night (it takes 18 mins to reach back)
Day 2, Monday, May 13th	- Travel to Hiroshima (you will have to leave your hotel at 6:30-640 am). The journey takes 2 hrs. - Once you reach Hiroshima, get to your pick up point for your Hiroshima walking tour. It will take you 20 mins to reach - Take the 4 hour tour Your last stop for the tour is Shukkei-en Garden. Have something to eat around there like at the CHINESE RESTAURANT TONKOU HIROSHIMA (it is open till 3pm, and is a 4 min walk) or Baku (1 min walk), also closes at 3pm. Or you can get some take out from Hoka Hoka Tei (open 7am-7pm) - Travel to the JR Miyajima Ferry, (it will take you 40 mins to reach) - The JR pass is active only on the JR ferry- timetable here Take the Ferry to Miyajima and then walk to the Itsukushima Shrine It is open till 6pm and costs Rs 150 for entrance. - After the visit, you can choose to walk 9 mins to Momijidani Park, across the Momiji bridge OR You can choose to walk (6mins) to Miyajima Omotesando Shopping street- a lively street with street food stalls and souvenir shops. - Return back by ferry to JR Miyajima/Miyajimaguchi station - Take the train to Hiroshima Station (takes around 30 minutes) Travel back to hotel in Osaka - Have dinner at one of the restaurants near the hotel (check eating out guide)

	Spend the night
Day 3, Tuesday May 14th	- Travel to Shin Osaka station By metro (30 mins, 1 change) By cab (15 mins) - Take the train to Kyoto. The journey takes 25mins Walk to the hotel (3 mins)- leave bags in storage - Have an early lunch - Travel to Saga Torokko station (leave by 12:15 pm. It takes 25 mins to reach) - Take the Sagano Railway (tickets booked for 1pm) - Once you return back to Saga Torokko station, take the tram (7min journey) to the Arashiyama Bamboo Grove, and stroll through The forest has no entrance fees, is open 24hrs and people typically spend an hour. Visit Fushimi Inari-Taisha It takes 45mins to reach from Arashiyama. It has no entrance fees, is open 24hrs and people typically spend 2 hrs. Have dinner around the Fushimi Inari area or return to the hotel area and eat there. (check Eating Out Guide), Return back to the hotel (takes 10 mins)
Day 4, Wednesday, May 15th	- Reach pickup point by 09:30 am (3 min walk from your hotel) The tour guide will hold a "GOGODAY" flag - Take a day trip to Amanohosidate(Details of your trip). Lunch time will probably be at the viewpoint, where there are many stalls/small restaurants. Return back to the hotel in the evening (drop off will be at 17:50 and is a 3 min walk to hotel), have dinner around the hotel (check eating out guide) - Spend the night in Kyoto
Day 5, Thursday May 16th	- Visit the Nara Deer Park in the morning (will take 40-50 mins one way). The park is free to enter, but you will need to buy crackers to feed the deer and pay for whichever temple entry if you choose to visit. People typically spend 2-3 hours in the park. The park itself is open 24 hrs but the attractions are usually open 8am-5pm. Return back to the hotel, have lunch near hotel (check eating out guide), pick bags. - Travel to Tokyo. Buy Bullet train in advance - Travel from Tokyo station to hotel APA Sugamo Ekimae By metro (23 mins) By cab (25 mins) - Check in to hotel, relax - Explore the area around (check eating out guide for restaurant options)
Day 6 Friday, May 17th	- Spend the day at Tokyo Disney Sea Buy tickets in advance Return back to hotel - Have dinner near your hotel (check eating out guide)

	Spend the night in Tokyo
Day 7 Saturday, May 18th	- Leave hotel by 6:30 am to reach pickup point by 07:00 am - Take a day trip to Hakone. Trip details. Lunch included Return back to hotel - Spend the night in Tokyo
Day 8 Sunday, May 19th	- Spend the day Tokyo city sightseeing - Begin with the Senso-ji temple (takes 45mins from the hotel by metro) It is open everyday from 6am- 5pm and entrance is free. People typically spend 30-60mins - Then walk to Asakusa district (7 mins), walk around taking in the sights - Then relax at/have lunch at Ueno Park (25 mins from Askasua by metro). Check eating out guide. - Visit the Akhibara district (10 mins by metro) and spend a couple of hours in the Anime capital of Tokyo. - Travel to Ikebukuro (40 mins by metro), spend the evening, have dinner at Sunshine City Return back to the hotel and spend the night
Day 9 Monday, May 20th	Visit TeamLabs Planets (takes 40 mins to reach by metro) (open 9am-10pm. Closed on wednesday) People typically spend 3-4 hours Buy tickets in advance - Walk 12 mins to the Toyosu market (huge venue with eateries and shops and an observation deck to overlook wholesale seafood auctions) - Have lunch in one of the stalls there. - Travel to the Tokyo Imperial Palace gardens (45 mins) You can't enter the palace itself but can spend time at the gardens (people typically spend about 1-2 hrs) Travel back to the hotel, (20 mins) have dinner around (check eating out guide) - Spend the night
Day 10 Tuesday May 21st	- Travel to and shop at Harajuku (will take 35 mins from the hotel). People typically spend 2-3 hours - Visit the Shibuya crossing (13 mins, by metro). - Have lunch at Tokyu Food Shibuchika Deli Zone and go souvenir shopping Return back to the hotel (25 mins by metro) - Relax and pack
Day 11 Wednesday, May 22nd	Book transfer to airport (check with hotel or otherwise need to book online) - Travel back to India (10:20 am flight from Narita to Mumbai)