

Hampi- All Inclusive Guide

Marina Fernandes

Contents

Recommended Itinerary - Hampi.....
Important Places Around Your Hotels.....
Recommended things to buy/carry.....
Restaurant Guide.....
Souvenir Buying Guide.....

Recommended Itinerary - Hampi

Day	Itinerary Details
Day 1 Dec 28 Saturday	• Arrive at Hampi in the afternoon/evening • Check into the resort- Heritage Resort Hampi
Day 2 Dec 29 Sunday	● After breakfast, spend the day exploring Hampi ● Visit the Hampi Archaeological Musuem ○ The museum showcases the rich history and culture of the Vijayanagara Kingdom, providing insights into the empire's art, architecture, and daily life. ○ Should take approx 10 mins from the hotel ○ Opening hours: 10am- 5pm ○ Entrance fee is Rs. 5 per head. Children below 15 enter free. ○ People typically spend 1-2 hrs ● Next, drive to the Hazara Raama Temple ○ It is a 15th-century Hindu temple located in Hampi, Karnataka, India. It is dedicated to Lord Rama and is known for its intricate carvings depicting scenes from the Ramayana. The temple was built by the Vijayanagara kings and is considered to be one of the most beautiful temples in Hampi. ○ Should take approx 5 mins from the Hampi Archaeological Musuem ○ Opening hours: 6am- 6pm ○ Entrance is free

	○ People typically spend an hour here ● Have lunch around (check eating out guide for more details) ● Then visit the Zanana Enclosure ○ It was a fortified area within the Vijayanagara Empire, specifically designed for the residence and leisure of royal women ○ Should take approx 2 mins from the Hazara Raama Temple ○ Opening hours: 8am- 6pm; Entrance is Rs. 10 per person. ○ People typically spend 15 mins ● Head over to the Palace of Vira Harihara ○ It was the residence of the Vijayanagara Empire's third king, Harihara Raya II. Constructed in the 14th century, it stands as a testament to the empire's grandeur and architectural prowess. While only the foundations remain today, they showcase intricate carvings and sculptures, offering a glimpse into the opulent lifestyle of the Vijayanagara kings. ○ Should take approx 2 mins from the Zanana Enclosure ○ Opening hours: 8am- 6pm; Entrance is free ○ People typically spend 30 mins here ● Visit the Underground Shiva temple ○ Also known as the Prasanna Virupaksha Temple, it is a 14th-century Hindu temple located in Hampi, India. The temple is unique in that it is built below ground level, with the roof at the current ground level. The temple remained buried for over four hundred years before it was discovered in the 1980s. The inner sanctum of the temple is always filled with water, and the temple is believed to have been used for private ceremonies. ○ Should take approx 1 mins from the Palace of Vira Harihara ○ Opening hours: 6am- 6pm ○ Entrance is free ○ Visitors usually spend 45 mins ● Stop at the Stepped tank ○ It is a beautifully preserved ancient water tank, showcasing the architectural prowess of the Vijayanagara Empire. It is constructed with finely finished black schist stones, featuring five distinct tiers with intricately designed steps. The tank was likely used for religious ceremonies and royal ablutions. The water was supplied through a network of ingenious stone channels, showcasing the advanced hydraulic engineering of the era.
--	--

	○ Should take approx 3 mins from the Underground Shiva Temple ○ Opening hours: 6am- 6pm; Entrance is free ○ People typically spend 15 mins
Day 3 Dec 30 Monday	● After breakfast, drive to Yantrodharaka Hanuman Temple ○ The Yantrodharaka Hanuman Temple is an ancient shrine dedicated to Lord Hanuman, located in Hampi, India. Situated on the banks of the Tungabhadra River, this 15th-century temple is renowned for its unique architectural feature: Lord Hanuman is depicted in a meditative pose, seated within a sacred Yantra (a geometric diagram used in Hindu tantric practices). ○ ~20 mins away from the resort ○ Opening hours: 6am- 9pm ○ From the parking place, you have to climb 575 steps to reach the top. The climb itself takes about 30-45 mins. ● Next, visit the Virupaksha Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most important temples in Hampi. ○ Dedicated to Lord Shiva, its origins trace back to the 7th century, evolving into a grand complex over time. The imposing 50-meter-tall eastern gopuram, adorned with intricate carvings, dominates the skyline. Within, the temple houses numerous shrines, including those dedicated to Bhuvaneshwari and Vidyaranya. ○ 4 mins drive from the Yantrodharaka Hanuman Temple ○ Hours: 6 am - 1 pm, 5 pm - 9 pm ○ This is an active religious site. It takes about 1-2 hours to explore ● Have lunch (check eating out guide) ● Then visit the Monolithic Bull, Nandi ○ It is a colossal sculpture of Nandi, the sacred bull of Lord Shiva. Carved from a single granite boulder, this impressive statue stands tall at the eastern end of the Virupaksha Bazaar. Its sheer size and intricate detailing are a testament to the artistic prowess of the Vijayanagara Empire. The bull faces the Virupaksha Temple, symbolizing its role as the guardian of the sacred site. ○ 10 mins drive from the Yantrodharaka Hanuman Temple ○ Opening hours: 7am- 8pm; entry is free ○ Visitors usually spend 15 mins ● Watch the sunset from Matanga Hill for a breathtaking view of the ruins. ○ 1 min drive from the Monolithic Bull

	○ Tip: Sunset is at around 6 pm and it takes about 30 mins to climb the hill, so try to get to the parking spot at around 5:00 pm to give yourself ample time to settle in for a breathtaking sunset ● Drive back to the resort and have dinner
Day 4 Dec 31 Tuesday	● After breakfast, head to the Shri Achyutaraaya Swamy Temple ○ A magnificent 16th-century architectural marvel, it stands as a testament to the grandeur of the Vijayanagara Empire in Hampi. Dedicated to Lord Tiruvengalanatha, a form of Lord Vishnu, the temple complex showcases intricate carvings, sculpted pillars, and ornate details. Its construction, supervised by Salakaraju Tirumaladeva, a high-ranking officer in King Achyuta Deva Raya's court, signifies the pinnacle of Vijayanagara temple architecture before the empire's decline. ○ 20 mins drive from the resort ○ Opening hours: 5:30am- 1pm and 5:30pm to 9pm; entry free ○ Visitors usually spend 30-60 minutes ● Then drive to Gagan Mahal Palace, Anegundi ○ This ancient palace, though now in ruins, still retains an old-world charm that attracts visitors on the Hampi trail, standing testament to the grandeur of the Vijayanagara Empire. ○ 35 min drive from Sri Achyutaraaya Swamy Temple ○ Opening hours: 6am- 6pm; entrance is free ○ People typically spend 1 hour ● Have lunch at Anegundi ○ Brahmin's Place- homestyle veg food and filter coffee ○ Tulasi Garden- South Indian veg meals ○ Hoova Café- veg thali served on a banana leaf ○ Coconut tree restaurant and guesthouse (nice ambience) ● Then continue driving to Sanapur lake (20 min drive from Anegundi) ○ This picturesque lake is part of the larger Tungabhadra River basin. ● Drive back to your resort (45 min drive) ● Spend the night in Hampi
Day 5 Jan 1 st Wednesday	● Drive back to Pune ● You can choose to visit the Badami Cave Temples (though this would take an additional 2 hours)

- | | |
|--|--|
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Or you can stay on the Solapur route and visit the Solapur Bhuikot Fort. |
|--|--|

Important Places Around Your Hotels

Hampi- Heritage Resort Hampi

Convenience stores

Reliance SMART Bazaar (7 min drive from the hotel)

There are several smaller grocery shops closer by too.

Pharmacy

Shri Sai Medical & General Stores (5 min drive)

Recommended things to buy/carry

- The weather in Hampi will be a max of 30 degrees and a minimum of 18 degrees- carry light clothes, sunscreen and a protective hat/cap for when you are out in the sun
- Mosquito repellent
- Swimwear
- Comfortable shoes

Restaurant Guide

Name of restaurant	Cuisine	Timings	Comments
The Nest – Lakefront Restaurant	Multicuisine, View the Menu	8 am - 10:30 pm	Part of the Hampi's feathers resort, a nice sit-down dining option. Food and Ambiance are both good. The place is about 40 mins away from the city center. Google maps shows a route which is about 30 km away but the resort people have mentioned that there is a bridge at Anegundi which provides a faster route. You may need to get driving directions from locals.
Mango Tree Restaurant	North and South Indian Curries	8 am - 9:30 pm	One of the must try places in Hampi. People love the food and the ambiance
The Bridge (Clarks Inn)	Indian	7 am - 11 pm	A nice sit down restaurant inside a hotel. People love the food here
Ganesh Old Chillout	Multicuisine	7 am - 11 pm	People love the hippie vibes and the ambiance, food is generally good. People have mentioned Hummus and Falafel in reviews. Not an upscale restaurant
Taste of Brahmins	South Indian Breakfast Restaurant	7 am - 11 am	While you most likely will have breakfast at the hotel, you might wanna try this hole in the wall, no frills place for a quick bite. Located very close to the Virupaksha Temple
Shambhu Dosa Center	South Indian Breakfast Restaurant	7 am - 12 pm	Another hole in the wall, no frills place but a dosa lover's paradise. May want to try it for a quick snack amidst the sightseeing. Located very close to the Virupaksha Temple

Souvenir Buying Guide

- Banana Fiber Crafts
 - Banana is a popular crop of this region, and the fiber extracted from the plant could be made into amazing handicrafts. The Kishkinta Trust which works with the local community to empower them and promote sustainable tourism in Hampi, have also launched a series of projects with local women to encourage banana fiber crafts. Their shop is located just behind the Virupaksha Temple.
- Lambani Crafts
 - Several Lambani women make bags, jewelry, trinkets, belts and patches in Hampi. They are hand-embroidered with brightly coloured threads and patched together. Stores outside Virupaksha Temple sell these items
 - See this instagram link to get an idea about the Lambani Crafts
- Stone Artefacts
 - Handcrafted stone artefacts which are either figurines of gods or replicas of the Hampi ruins are quite popular. Mostly you will find these on push carts close to some famous ruins. There are stalls and carts also in the main bazaar.
- Last, but not the least, The main Hampi Bazaar buzzes with energy and has a lot of souvenir shops to choose from.

We, at Bon Voyage by Marina, appreciate the opportunity to plan this vacation for you. We hope you fully enjoy your vacation and make the most of your time together!

Don't forget, we're just a message or call away for any assistance you may need, whether it's before, during, or after your trip.

Thank you!

