SOUVENIR BUYING GUIDE

- Banana Fiber Crafts
 - Banana is a popular crop of this region, and the fiber extracted from the plant could be made into amazing handicrafts. The Kishkinta Trust which works with the local community to empower them and promote sustainable tourism in Hampi, have also launched a series of projects with local women to encourage banana fiber crafts. Their shop is located just behind the Virupaksha Temple.
- Lambani Crafts
 - Several Lambani women make bags, jewelry, trinkets, belts and patches in Hampi. They are hand-embroidered with brightly coloured threads and patched together. Stores outside Virupaksha Temple sell these items
 - See this instagram link to get an idea about the Lambani Crafts
- Stone Artefacts
 - Handcrafted stone artefacts which are either figurines of gods or replicas of the Hampi ruins are quite popular. Mostly you will find these on push carts close to some famous ruins. There are stalls and carts also in the main bazaar.
- Last, but not the least, The main Hampi Bazaar buzzes with energy and has a lot of souvenir shops to choose from.
