Must-Try Local Dishes in Mauritius

Street Food & Snacks

- Dholl Puri
Mauritius' most iconic snack: soft split-pea flatbreads served in pairs and stuffed with gros pois (butter bean curry), satini pomme d'amour (tomato chutney), and pickled vegetables.
 Best from street vendors or markets across the island
 - Roti (Farata)
Flaky flatbread filled with meat, fish or vegetable curries and tangy chutneys—a hearty, affordable snack on the go.
 - Gateaux Piments (Chili Cakes)
Deep-fried lentil balls spiced with green chilies, spring onions, and coriander. Crispy, spicy, and addictive.
 Perfect with a cold Phoenix beer
 - Samoosas
Indian-style triangle pastries filled with spiced vegetables, chicken, or lamb. Found at nearly every food stall or snack shop.
 - Bajia
Spiced vegetable fritters (like eggplant or spinach), deep-fried to golden crispness. A staple at roadside stands.
 - Mine Frites (Fried Noodles)
Stir-fried egg noodles with soy sauce, veggies, and your choice of meat or seafood. A satisfying Chinese-Mauritian classic.
 - Boulettes (Dumplings)
Steamed dumplings made from chayote, fish, or shrimp—served in broth with chili sauce.
 Try "boulettes chouchou" (chayote version)
 - Puri Bhaji
Indian-inspired deep-fried puris served with mildly spiced mashed potato curry. A breakfast or light lunch favorite.
 - Kulfi
Dense and creamy frozen dessert flavored with mango, cardamom, or pistachio. Richer than ice cream and perfect in the island heat.

Main Dishes

- Fish Vindaye
Tangy and bold, this mustard-infused fish dish includes turmeric, garlic, ginger, and vinegar.
 Try at Le Fangourin
- Mauritian Curries
Coconut-based, tomato-spiced, or dry-roasted styles using prawns, chicken, or octopus. Rich with cumin, turmeric, coriander.
 Octopus curry at Republik Beach Club & Grill
- Lamb Rogan Josh
Indian-inspired and locally adapted—this slow-cooked lamb dish is full of depth and local spice character.
- Daube
A rustic French-style stew made with beef or pork, carrots, potatoes, and beans. Comfort food, island-style.
- Rougaille
A spiced tomato-based dish cooked with sausage, salted fish, or seafood.
 Try Rougaille Poisson Salé (salted fish version)
- Briani
Fragrant saffron rice layered with marinated meat or fish, caramelized onions, and yogurt.
 A must during celebrations or Sunday feasts
- Mine Bouillie (Boiled Noodles)
Lighter than fried noodles—served in broth with vegetables and meat. Nourishing and comforting.
- Palm Heart Salad (Salade de Palmiste)
A delicacy made from tender palm cores, usually tossed with citrus dressing. Subtle, nutty flavor and great for warm days.
- Smoked Marlin
Served in thin slices as an appetizer or salad topping. Smooth, rich, and uniquely Mauritian.

- Fresh Fruit Juices

Enjoy tropical blends like mango, passionfruit, pineapple, and papaya—fresh-pressed and served island-style.

- Alouda

A local version of falooda—made with milk, agar-agar jelly, basil seeds, and rose syrup. Served chilled.

 Refreshing, sweet, and best from street vendors

- Sugarcane Juice

Freshly pressed and naturally sweet, often served with lime or ginger.

- Mauritian Rum

Infused, spiced, or aged—local brands like Green Island or Chamarel Distillery offer top-quality options.

- Phoenix Beer

The nation's beloved lager. Light, crisp, and perfect for pairing with Creole snacks.

- Bois Chéri Tea

Locally grown and often infused with vanilla. Available hot or cold, especially delicious with breakfast or dessert.

Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases

To ensure a respectful and enjoyable experience in Mauritius, it's helpful to be aware of some cultural do's and don'ts:

Dos:

- Greet people politely: A simple "Bonjour" (good day) or "Bonsoir" (good evening) followed by a handshake is generally appreciated. .
- Dress modestly when visiting religious sites: When visiting temples, mosques, or churches, it's important to dress respectfully. This usually means covering your shoulders and knees. Some sites may provide shawls or require you to remove your shoes before entering.
- Bargain respectfully in markets: In local markets, bargaining is a common practice. However, do so politely and with a smile. Start with a reasonable offer (around a quarter to a third of the initial price) and negotiate gently. Avoid being aggressive or trying to haggle excessively over small amounts.
- Be mindful of noise levels: While Mauritians are generally friendly and expressive, be mindful of noise levels in public places, especially in residential areas and during religious ceremonies.
- Respect religious customs and festivals: If you happen to be in Mauritius during a religious festival, be respectful of the traditions and customs being observed. Avoid loud behaviour or photography that might be intrusive.

Don'ts:

- Don't wear revealing clothing in public places: While Mauritius is a tropical island, it's generally advisable to dress modestly when you're not at the beach or in your resort.
- Don't be overly loud or boisterous in public: While Mauritians are warm and friendly, excessive noise or rowdy behaviour in public places can be considered impolite.
- Don't take photos of people without their permission: Always ask for permission before taking someone's photograph, especially in local villages or during religious ceremonies.
- Don't criticize local customs or traditions: Be respectful of the local culture, even if it differs from your own. Avoid making negative comments or comparisons.
- Don't enter religious sites without appropriate attire: As mentioned earlier, ensure you are dressed modestly before entering temples, mosques, or churches.
- Don't litter: Mauritius is a beautiful island, and it's important to help keep it clean. Dispose of your trash responsibly.
- Don't be impatient or demanding: Mauritian culture generally has a more relaxed pace. Be patient and understanding, especially when dealing with services.

Safety & Emergency Contacts

While Mauritius is generally considered a safe and welcoming destination, it's always wise to be prepared and aware of your surroundings.

Personal Safety Tips:

- Be Aware of Your Surroundings: Pay attention to your belongings and the people around you, especially in crowded areas like markets, bus stations, and tourist hotspots.
- Secure Your Valuables: Avoid displaying large amounts of cash or expensive jewellery. Keep your valuables (passport, money, credit cards) secure in a hotel safe or a concealed money belt.
- Carry Copies of Important Documents: Keep a photocopy of your passport, visa (if applicable), flight tickets, and travel insurance details separate from the originals. Store digital copies securely online or on your phone.
- Avoid Walking Alone at Night in Unlit or Isolated Areas: Stick to well-lit and populated areas after dark. If you need to travel at night, consider taking a registered taxi or arranging transportation through your hotel.
- Be Cautious with Strangers: Be wary of overly friendly strangers who approach you with unsolicited offers or stories. Avoid going to unfamiliar or secluded places with people you've just met.
- Protect Your Drinks: Never leave your drinks unattended and be cautious about accepting drinks from strangers to prevent drink spiking.
