✓ Day 1: Saturday, 20 December 2025:

Arrival in Jaipur → Sightseeing → Transfer to Ranthambore → Leisure

Arrival in Jaipur & Morning Sightseeing

Welcome to the Pink City! On arrival at Jaipur International Airport, your day begins with an introduction to the city's royal charm before heading into the wilderness of Ranthambore.

Start your sightseeing with one of Jaipur's icons — within easy reach of the airport and forming a smooth circuit.

Hawa Mahal (Palace of Winds)

Marvel at Jaipur's most photographed façade—its honeycomb of pink sandstone windows was designed for royal women to watch the world below unseen.

- Google Maps: Hawa Mahal
 - Travel from Jantar Mantar: ~5–8 min by car
 - Hours: 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM
 - Entry: ~₹50 (Indian)
 - Parking: Limited; best visited with a hired vehicle drop-off

Lunch Recommendations (Jaipur)

Tapri Central — Rooftop, casual, lively

Day 2: Sunday, 21 December 2025: Ranthambore → Jaipur | Morning Safari & Transfer

Your day begins in the heart of Ranthambore's wilderness, where the forest comes alive at sunrise. After an unforgettable wildlife encounter, you will journey back to Jaipur for a relaxed evening in the Pink City.

Morning Safari — Ranthambore National Park (Confirmed Slot)

Begin your day early as you head to the safari gate for your pre-booked morning journey into one of India's most iconic tiger reserves.

The morning breeze is crisp, birds call from treetops, and soft light filters through the dry deciduous forest — a perfect setting for wildlife sightings.

- Google Maps: Ranthambore National Park
- Travel from Nahargarh Ranthambore: ~15–20 min by car (varies by safari gate)
- Approx. Safari Timings in December: 7:00 AM – 10:30 AM
- Entry: Already pre-booked (carry a valid photo ID)
- Parking: Available at the designated safari boarding points

As you drive deeper into your assigned zone, keep watch for:

- Bengal tigers near water bodies and old fort ruins

- Leopards on rocky ledges
- Crocodiles basking near lakes
- Sambar deer, chital, and langurs
- A variety of birds including owls, kingfishers, and eagles

Return to your hotel after the safari to freshen up and check out.

Check-Out & Drive to Jaipur

After a refreshing break at Nahargarh Ranthambhore, begin your comfortable journey to Jaipur.

- Approx. travel time: 3–3.5 hours
- Route: Scenic highway drive through small towns, open farmlands, and semi-arid landscapes

Arrive in Jaipur by afternoon and proceed to your heritage stay.

Day 5: Wednesday, 24 December 2025: Jaipur | Day Excursion to Jaigarh Fort & Nahargarh Fort

Today is dedicated to Jaipur's hilltop guardians — Jaigarh Fort and Nahargarh Fort — two magnificent strongholds perched on the Aravalli ridges. These forts offer sweeping views of the Pink City, intricate architecture, and stories of military might and royal retreats. After a relaxed morning, explore both forts at an easy pace before settling in for another comfortable evening in Jaipur.

Morning — Jaigarh Fort

"The Fort of Victory," commanding and powerful.

Begin your day with a visit to Jaigarh Fort, famous for its intact fortifications, subterranean passages, and the colossal Jaivana Cannon, once the world's largest wheeled cannon.
