Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases- Sri Lanka

Dos

- Dress modestly, especially when visiting temples — cover shoulders and knees.
- Remove shoes and hats before entering religious sites.
- Greet with a smile and use “Ayubowan” (palms together) as a respectful hello.
- Ask permission before taking photos of people, especially monks.
- Use your right hand (or both hands) for giving or receiving items.
- Respect Buddhist symbols — treat statues and images of Buddha with reverence.
- Carry cash, as smaller shops and rural areas may not accept cards.
- Bargain politely in markets, but don't overdo it.
- Be mindful of wildlife and follow park rules if you go on safaris.
- Drink bottled or filtered water to stay safe.
- Follow traffic rules carefully, as roads can be busy and chaotic.

Don'ts

- Don't touch or pose with your back to Buddha statues — it's considered disrespectful.
- Don't point your feet toward people, statues, or sacred objects.
- Don't take photos of military or government buildings.
- Don't litter — Sri Lanka is known for its natural beauty, so keep it clean.
- Don't compare Sri Lanka to India or discuss sensitive political topics.

Personal Safety & Emergency Contacts

General Safety Tips:

- Carry a copy of your passport; keep the original in a hotel safe.
- Avoid displaying expensive jewelry or electronics in public
- Be cautious with street food — eat at clean, busy stalls.
- Be aware of your surroundings in crowded places and tourist spots.
- Keep cash and cards in separate pouches; avoid carrying large amounts.
- Follow local laws and customs — respect religious sites and dress codes.
- Use bottled or filtered water; avoid tap water.
- Take precautions against mosquitoes — wear repellent
- Keep emergency contacts handy (local police, embassy, hotel).
- Avoid swimming in unmonitored beaches during rough seas or rainy seasons.

Scams and Frauds in Sri Lanka:

- Taxi or tuk-tuk overcharging – always agree on a fare beforehand or use a meter/app.
- Fake gem shops – some tourists are lured to overpriced “official” shops.
- Street hawkers overcharging – be cautious when buying souvenirs or crafts.
- Money exchange scams – always use authorized money changers or banks.
- Timeshare / holiday club pitches – often aggressive at beaches and tourist spots.
- Fake charity or donation requests – especially near temples or popular sites.
- “Free” tours or services – may lead to forced purchases later.
- Pickpocketing – common in crowded places, markets, and buses.

Mobile Connectivity & SIM Card Guide

Mobile Networks

- Dialog – Largest coverage nationwide.
- Mobitel – Strong rural and hill area coverage.
- Airtel – Affordable plans, good urban coverage.
- Hutch – Budget-friendly, limited remote coverage.

Our recommendation is to go for Dialog.
