Day 1 — Dec 18: Arrival in Colombo → Transfer to Sheraton Kosgoda Turtle Beach Resort

Arrival & Transfer

You land at Bandaranaike International Airport \(CMB\) at 13:40 on IndiGo 6E 1181. After immigration and baggage, meet your driver and begin your beautiful coastal drive south to:

Sheraton Kosgoda Turtle Beach Resort

Travel time: ~1 hr 58 min

The drive hugs the coastline, with glimpses of palm groves, lagoon views, and fishing villages.

Check in, refresh, and ease into the tropical rhythm of Sri Lanka.

Afternoon — Beach Relaxation

Spend your first afternoon unwinding along Kosgoda's peaceful coastline. The waves here are gentle, the breeze warm, and the resort's beachfront offers a naturally calm welcome after a travel day.

If you'd like a soft first activity, request the concierge for a walk to the nearby turtle conservation stretch (hotel-organized timings vary by season)

Day 2 — Dec 19: Galle Day Trip

After a relaxed beachfront morning at Sheraton Kosgoda, drive south to the UNESCO-heritage Galle Fort for a full cultural + historic immersion.

 Drive from Kosgoda to Galle Fort: 1 hr 5 min car drive

Sightseeing — Galle Fort & Surroundings

Galle Fort & Surroundings

- Walk along the old ramparts — soak in sea-views, colonial architecture, cobbled lanes.
 - Visit the Galle Lighthouse atop the fort — a charming white tower by the sea.
 - Wander through boutique shops on narrow streets, bask in the old-town ambience, explore little galleries and old-world buildings.

Lunch in Galle Fort

Since you're in Galle, here are two highly recommended restaurants inside/near the Fort that cater well to vegetarians:

Coconut Sambol

-  68 Church Street, Galle Fort — tucked on a quiet street but well-known among travellers.
- Why it works: Buffet-style Sri Lankan rice & curry with daily rotating curries; offers several vegetarian and vegan curries
- What to try (veg): Coconut-based curries, vegetable curries, dhal, rice, sambols — simple, homely, and hearty.
-  10:00 AM – 10:00 PM — good for lunch or early dinner.
-  500–1500 LKR per person

Lucky Fort Restaurant

- 📍 Parawa Street No. 7, Galle Fort — central, easy to reach on foot while exploring Fort.
 - Why it works: Known for a “rice plus 10-different curries” style meal; vegetarian-friendly, with multiple vegetable / dhal / pumpkin / okra / eggplant curries — ideal for a fulfilling local lunch.
 - 🍽️ What to try (veg): Mixed vegetable curries, pumpkin/okra/eggplant curries, dhal, rice — a generous, varied spread to share.
 - 🕒 12:30 PM – 3:00 PM, Dinner: 6:00 PM – 10:00 PM

☀️ Afternoon — Continue Exploring / Relax at Fort

Post-lunch, continue wandering the fort’s narrow lanes, explore art galleries or small museums (e.g. historic colonial-era buildings), or just find a quiet café to sip a fresh drink while watching fort-life.

Later, begin the drive back to the seaside resort at Kosgoda — perfect to catch the coastal sunset en route.

🌙 Evening — Return to Resort & Dinner

Arrive back at Sheraton Kosgoda Turtle Beach Resort by evening. For dinner, either choose a veg-friendly local spot (or resort dinner), or revisit Coconut Sambol / Lucky Fort if you like and if time permits.

Day 3 — Dec 20: Madu Ganga River Safari + Kosgoda Sea Turtle Conservation

Today blends calm waterways, mangrove forests, island shrines, and meaningful conservation work — all within the Kosgoda/Bentota zone.

Morning — Madu Ganga River Safari

Madu Ganga River Safari

 Travel time: ~20–25 min from Sheraton Kosgoda Turtle Beach Resort

Begin your day gliding through the serene Madu Ganga estuary — one of Sri Lanka's largest wetland ecosystems. The water is still and glassy, with mangrove tunnels that create archways overhead. You'll pass tiny islets, cinnamon plantations, birdlife, and quiet stretches of untouched nature.

Typical inclusions:

- Mangrove tunnel cruise
- 🕒 6:00 AM and 4:00 PM
- 💰 ₹1,828 per adult
- Visit to Kothduwa Temple Island
- 🕒 7:00 AM until around 5:30 PM
- 💰 free
- Cinnamon island demo (peeling, oil distillation)
- 🕒 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM
- Bird and reptile sightings

🕒 Best to start between 8:00–9:00 AM to avoid mid-day heat.

💰 Price varies by boat operator; your resort can organise reputable operators.

Cultural Etiquette & Useful Local Phrases- Sri Lanka

Dos

- Dress modestly, especially when visiting temples — cover shoulders and knees.
- Remove shoes and hats before entering religious sites.
- Greet with a smile and use “Ayubowan” (palms together) as a respectful hello.
- Ask permission before taking photos of people, especially monks.
- Use your right hand (or both hands) for giving or receiving items.
- Respect Buddhist symbols — treat statues and images of Buddha with reverence.
- Carry cash, as smaller shops and rural areas may not accept cards.
- Bargain politely in markets, but don't overdo it.
- Be mindful of wildlife and follow park rules if you go on safaris.
- Drink bottled or filtered water to stay safe.
- Follow traffic rules carefully, as roads can be busy and chaotic.

Don'ts

- Don't touch or pose with your back to Buddha statues — it's considered disrespectful.
- Don't point your feet toward people, statues, or sacred objects.
- Don't take photos of military or government buildings.

Personal Safety & Emergency Contacts

General Safety Tips:

- Carry a copy of your passport; keep the original in a hotel safe.
- Avoid displaying expensive jewelry or electronics in public
- Be cautious with street food — eat at clean, busy stalls.
- Be aware of your surroundings in crowded places and tourist spots.
- Keep cash and cards in separate pouches; avoid carrying large amounts.
- Follow local laws and customs — respect religious sites and dress codes.
- Use bottled or filtered water; avoid tap water.
- Take precautions against mosquitoes — wear repellent
- Keep emergency contacts handy (local police, embassy, hotel).
- Avoid swimming in unmonitored beaches during rough seas or rainy seasons.

Scams and Frauds in Sri Lanka:

- Taxi or tuk-tuk overcharging – always agree on a fare beforehand or use a meter/app.
- Fake gem shops – some tourists are lured to overpriced “official” shops.
- Street hawkers overcharging – be cautious when buying souvenirs or crafts.
- Money exchange scams – always use authorized money changers or banks.
- Timeshare / holiday club pitches – often aggressive at beaches and tourist spots.
- Fake charity or donation requests – especially near temples or popular sites.
