Vietnamese Non Vegetarian dishes

- Phở - the quintessential Vietnamese dish, the word phở referring to the type of noodle used in the recipe. Flat rice noodles with boiled chicken in a hearty stock.
This is usually a beef dish, but I have recommended above where you will get a great chicken pho
- Ga tan -a broth that's Vietnam's answer to the proverbial cup of chicken noodle soup
- Ga nuong -Honey marinated then grilled over large flaming barbecues, the chicken legs, wings and feet served are unusually tender, while the skin stays crispy but not dry.
- Banh Mi- Paté and margarine are spread swiftly across the soft, chewy interior of a baguette and later, the sandwich is loaded with pickled vegetables, fresh cilantro and cucumber.
This is usually a pork dish, so I have recommended above where to get the chicken version!
- Cha ca – a speciality of Hanoi- sizzling chunks of fish seasoned with garlic, ginger, turmeric and dill on a hot pan tableside.
- Hoi An Chicken rice- Chicken and rice is a foolproof combination. But in Hội An, this delicious duo is elevated using fresh ingredients from the countryside. Strips of tender chicken are shredded, mixed with flavoured fish sauce and onions to accompany a bowl of turmeric rice. Pickled shallots, radish and herbs are served on the side
- Nom hoa chuoí -Vietnam's banana flower salad packs a much bigger punch than a typical plate of mixed greens. Banana flowers (thick purple lumps that will later turn into bunches of bananas) are peeled and thinly sliced then mixed with green papaya, carrots, and cilantro along with chicken and a heavy-handed pour of a salty fish sauce dressing and crunchy peanuts.
- Xôi- Vietnamese sticky rice is a departure from other sticky rice interpretations in the region. The weighted, more dense glutinous staple is comes in a savoury or a sweet option
- gỏi cuốn – Vietnamese fresh spring rolls- The semi-transparent skin is made from softened sheets of rice paper. Encased within is a stack of leafy greens, mint, coriander, some form of protein and a stalk of garlic chive poking out from the snugly wrapped roll. (Ask for seafood or chicken options).
- Bún chả cá is a dish with many variations depending on where you find it. They all contain spaghetti-like rice vermicelli (bún), fish cakes (chả cá) and fresh herbs.
- Chè is a sweet dessert, served either hot or cold and in the form of a pudding or dessert soup. Cold chè is filled with jellied ingredients and tropical fruits such as bananas, mangoes and longan, usually doused in coconut cream. Always a textural adventure, you'll be surprised to encounter coconut shreds, crushed ice, lotus seed and jellies in these syrupy snacks.
- Hoa qua dam- This chunky blend of fresh tropical fruit in a cup is the perfect local treat. You can have the shaved ice version or the one in condensed milk.
- Nem ran- Vietnam's bite-sized crunchy spring rolls might not enjoy the same popularity as their healthier fresh equivalent, but they deserve a special mention. The crispy shell with a soft veggie and meat filling dunked in a tangy sauce
Make sure you ask for the crab or chicken Nem Ran because there are often pork nem ran.
- Banh khot -variation of a Vietnamese pancake has all the same tasty ingredients but is a fraction of the size. The crunchy outside is made using coconut milk and the filling usually consists of shrimp, mung beans, and spring onions with a dusting of dried shrimp flakes on top.
- Egg coffee- The creamy soft, meringue-like egg white foam perched on the dense Vietnamese coffee- is more dessert like.

Vietnamese Vegetarian Dishes

- Pho Chay- The veg version of Pho.
- Xoi or Com Chay- The vegetarian version of Xoi or Com (Sticky rice) is generally served with items as diverse as chickpeas, coconut, sugar, mushrooms, broccoli, pepper, red chilli and onion.
- Rau Muong Xao Toi is one of the healthiest Vietnamese dishes. It's made by picking out fresh water spinach and frying it with garlic and other Vietnamese herbs and served with a topping of peanut powder. This dish is available in almost all restaurants
- Goi cuon chay Vegetarian fresh Vietnamese spring rolls
- Banh Mi Chay is the vegetarian version of the famous Vietnamese snack Banh Mi. It is a French style baguette sandwich filled with tofu, cheese or fried eggs. You can even choose to have your Banh Mi filled only with vegetable salad filling.
- Bun dau mam tom - This plain-looking tofu and noodle dish is served with mam tom sauce – the Vegemite of Vietnam. The pungent purple dipping sauce is used to flavor the slabs of deep-fried tofu that are at the core of the meal.
- Banh Khoai Tay Chien or deep-fried Potato Cakes are made by mashing sweet potato, coconut and green beans all mashed, moulded into cakes and cooked or fried till golden brown. They are served with a peanut dipping and spices.
- Dau Sot Ca Chua is an authentic vegetarian Vietnamese dish which consists of yellow tofu pieces with slices of tomato, green onion and Vietnamese herbs. The dish offers a flavourful medley of soft tofu and fresh tomatoes and is best served with steamed rice
- Cai Xao Nam is a vegetarian Vietnamese dish made by frying bok choy with shitake mushrooms, served with steamed sticky rice and tofu pieces. The flavour of the shitake mushrooms is brought out by the bok choy and the mushroom or soy sauce that it is fried in, making it one of the most exquisite dishes of the vegetarian food in Vietnam

Additional Tips

- Unless particularly known for their veg or chicken/seafood options, avoid visiting the sidewalk restaurants
- Most of the other sit down restaurants will have menus in English but you can always use Google Translate camera feature to take a picture of the menu and translate it.
- Use the Google Translate app text to speech feature to also place your order or ask any questions.
- Remember-

Chay= vegetarian

Ga= chicken

Ca= fish

Bo= beef

Getting around in Vietnam

Public Transport

- Apart from tuktuks (cycle driven autos) and buses, there are no other modes of public transport.
- However, the areas of Hanoi, My Khe Beach, Da Nang City and Hoi an are incredibly walkable.
- In general, it is recommended to catch a cab for slightly longer distances because of the affordability.

Cabs

These are the most popular Taxi companies below-

- Grab – (ride hailing app)- you will need a data pack for this to book Taxis on the go. You can set up your account in India and set up your credit card as a payment option, before you leave on vacation
- Uber- (ride hailing app)- you will need a data pack for this to book Taxis on the go. You can use your existing account.
- Vinasun- no app available
- Mai linh- no app available

*Refrain from taking cabs which are not from the above companies to avoid scams.
Our recommendation will be the Grab app for ease, affordability and reliability.*

Mobile Connectivity while in Vietnam

- There are 3 main SIM Card providers in Vietnam, which are Viettel, Vinaphone, and Mobifone.
- I would recommend Viettel as it is best in terms of coverage (specially since you are traveling within Vietnam)
- Expect to pay between 150,000-350,000 VND (Rs. 500 - Rs. 1200) for a SIM card and then additional for a prepaid data package
- The best place to buy a sim card is at the airport kiosks
- Even if you do not purchase an international roaming plan for your current India number, remember to activate roaming so that you receive messages (important for things like OTPs).

Important Numbers

Here are few numbers you may need while in Vietnam:

- International Dialing Code: +84
- Domestic Calls (within Vietnam): 0 + Area code + Telephone No.
- International Calls (outside Vietnam): 00 + Country code + Area code + Telephone No.
- The following is a list of useful telephone numbers to have on hand when visiting Vietnam:
 - o 101: Domestic Long Distance Telephone Service
 - o 1080: Social and Cultural Information
 - o 110: International Telephone Service
 - o 113: Police
 - o 114: Fire Brigade
 - o 115: Ambulance

Recommended things to buy/carry

- Travel Insurance- you should get 10,000 USD coverage per person. Recommendation - TATA AIG
- Caps
- Umbrellas
- Mosquito Repellent
- Travel adaptors- The voltage supply in Vietnam is 220 volts. Most sockets accommodate plugs with two round prongs.
- Doctors prescriptions/travel prescriptions for medicines (except over the counter meds)
- Walking shoes!

Common Phrases

Regarding Foreign Currency

- Vietnam's unit of currency is the Vietnamese đồng (VND), represented by the '₫' symbol.
- You can find notes in denominations of 200₫, 500₫, 1,000₫, 2,000₫, 5,000₫, 10,000₫, 20,000₫, 50,000₫, 100,000₫, 200,000₫, and 500,000₫.
- While most establishments (hotels, bigger restaurants, Ba Na hills will accept cards, it's a good idea to carry cash for small purchases and some establishments only take cash, including the Museum of Ethnology
- Exchange money before going and if you need some additional cash while there, the most cost effective way is to use an ATM. Do check with your banks regarding the charges.
- Ensure that the cards you are carrying are activated for international spends.
