Famous Local Swiss Delicacies

Fondue: A dish made by melting cheese in a communal pot, it's traditionally enjoyed by dipping bread into the cheese using long-stemmed forks.

Raclette: another iconic Swiss cheese dish you can't miss. A wheel of Raclette cheese is heated, and the melted part is scraped onto boiled potatoes, pickles, and onions.

Rösti: Originally a breakfast dish from the Swiss-German region of Switzerland, Rösti is now enjoyed all over the country. Think of it as Switzerland's answer to hash browns – crispy, golden brown, and absolutely delicious. It's made by grating potatoes and frying them until they're perfectly crunchy.

Swiss Pastries: Switzerland's pastry game is strong. From the buttery, flaky croissants to the sweet, jam-filled Nusstorte from Engadine, these pastries are just delicious.

Käseschnitte: Bread slices topped with melted cheese, sometimes with ham or other additions. A hearty and comforting dish. Ask for the vegetarian version.

Gschwellti (Boiled Potatoes): A simple yet satisfying side dish commonly served with melted butter or cheese.

Alplermagronen (Alpine Macaroni): A traditional dish made with macaroni, cheese, potatoes, onions, and sometimes applesauce (lauterbrunnen)

Luzerner Lebkuchen: A type of gingerbread cookie unique to Lucerne, often decorated with colorful icing.

Chügelipaschtete (Lucerne Saffron Cake): A sweet and savory pastry filled with a mixture of rice, raisins, saffron, and sometimes meat.

Swiss Cheese: Switzerland is famous for its wide variety of cheeses. Try some local specialties like Emmental with its large holes, Gruyère, or Appenzeller with its strong flavor.

Swiss Chocolate: Indulge in some of the best chocolate in the world! Switzerland is known for its high-quality chocolate brands like Lindt and Sprüngli.

Rivella: A popular Swiss drink made from whey and herbs, available in various flavors.

Schümli Kaffee: A small, strong coffee served in a demitasse cup.

Local Wines: Switzerland produces some excellent wines.

Famous Local Italian Delicacies

- 1) Pizza especially the Napoletana Pizza
- 2) Pasta- including fettucine al pomodoro, gnocchi de patate
- 3) Rissoto
- 4) Arancini- rice balls seared with ragu, cheese, and optional sides like aubergine, peas, etc.
- 5) Polenta- It is basically a corn mush that pairs well with meats, salads, and zuppa (soup).
- 6) Truffles- Italy's food culture is incomplete without truffles that have been dug up from the forests of Umbria, Piedmont and Tuscany. The rare ones are white in colour with a distinctive aroma while the black truffles that are more easily available are less fragrant.
- 7) Lasanga- layered pasta with veggies and sauce
- 8) Gelato
- 9) Foccacia- flatbread prepared with vegetables like onions, tomatoes, and olives with a drizzle of olive oil and pesto on top
- 10) Burrata- It tastes very similar to the traditional mozzarella cheese available in Italy with the only difference being that it is a lot creamier and buttery
- 11) Melanzane alla Parmigiana- It is made with thinly sliced aubergine that is then topped with cheese
- 12) Tiramisu- In a traditional tiramisù, the chef layers soft biscuits with espresso coffee, mascarpone cheese, sugar, egg, wine, rum, and cocoa powder.
- 13) Pannacotta
- 14) Bigoli in salsa (Venetian speciality)- long, thick, whole-wheat pasta called bigoli (or bigoi, if you ask a Venetian), coated in a sauce made of onions and salt-cured anchovies or sardines.
- 15) Risotto al nero di seppia-risotto with squid ink (Venetian speciality)
- 16) Risi e bisi (rice and peas) is a hearty, (classic Venetian dish)that you'll find as a starter at trattorias across the city, but it can often be a meal in itself.

Getting around in Switzerland

- With your Swiss Pass, you are able to use all the trains, free of cost.
- The boat tours at Interlaken (on Lake Thun or Lake Brienz) are also free of cost.
- Only for mountain excursions and cable cars, you may need to purchase an additional ticket, but almost always with a discount.
- Sometimes, you are required to show your passport along with your Eurail pass so make sure it is handy.

Getting Around in Italy

Venice:

- Purchase a 1 day pass for more flexibility. You can use the following- Vaporetto, buses in the City of Venice, Tram, People Mover service (Piazzale Roma - Maritime Station - Tronchetto) and the Trenitalia train service on Regional (R) and Fast Regional (RV) trains within the territory of the municipality of Venice (Venezia S. Lucia, Venezia P.to Marghera, Venezia Mestre, Venezia Carpenedo, Venezia Mestre Ospedale).
- Purchase online, 1 month before travel
- Purchase a 1 day pass of 25 EUR

Florence:

- The centre of Florence is quite compact and walkable. Most people don't use public transport but get around on foot.
- A single ticket is valid for 90 minutes and costs €1.50 and can be validated in the yellow machines on buses
- An urban ticket is valid for 90 minutes and can be used on buses and trams. It costs €1.70
- An Agile 10 card is a magnetic card which contains 10 tickets for 90-minute journeys and costs €14. It can be shared between people.
- If you don't plan on using public transport much you can just tap and pay using a debit card/forex card as it is contactless.
- Tickets can be bought at metro stations/automatic machines at tram stops.

Pisa:

- I wouldn't recommend buying a pass because you are only doing less than a day. Pay as you go

Rome:

- There are 24hr (7 EUR) and 48 hr (12.5) transport passes available for unlimited access to metro, bus and train travel within Rome.
